I am at it again! Two years ago, I accomplished my walk of 40 days straight. Walking 1369 miles from Seaside, OR to San Diego, CA.

This year, I am walking from Portland, OR to Chicago, IL! I will leave Portland on June 17th, 2018 and will walk for 60 consecutive days – averaging 35.5 miles per day. Arriving in Chicago on Aug 15th, 2018. I will walk a total of 2150 miles, and taking approximately 4.2 million steps!

I am walking to bring awareness to “EveryoneWalk”, a non profit with a mission to destroy obesity in America through building community athletic parks nationwide.

Use your Influence and my legs to impact our neighbors.
